

Reality Swap: The Alternative Status Quo, Berlin

Two DayFour contributors are currently exhibiting in separate shows in Berlin.

Ralf Obergfell is one of the artists in Reality Swap: The Alternative Status Quo, coordinated by Artconnect Berlin with 48 Stunden Neukölln. (See more Ralf in d4.9, Modern Love).

"The exhibition take the theme 'A Change of Perspective' as inspiration to showcase selected art works created by the Artconnect Berlin community, bringing to discussion the idea of putting oneself in someone else's shoes. This group exhibition is the result of an Open Call made through Artconnect Berlin's network, where we encouraged the artists to present their views about empathy and also to work with a media they have never worked with before – achieving a new perspective not only on their surroundings but also on their work."

The exhibition takes place this weekend, from Friday June 16 at 19.00
 Artconnect Berlin HQ, Boddinstraße 62, 12053 Berlin
